of students always or regularly attend campus events. 34% never attend. In 2010 10% always or very participation. They would like the results to be shared. A few students hope the information gathered through the survey is used and helps IVC make better decisions. One student asked if the survey would help IVC with their goals. The survey was informative about available campus services. One student commented that now they know what they are responsible for.