3. M/S/C (Gilson/Mosier, from earlier meeting) to approve Resolution on Revision to College Hour/Time Blocks for 2015-2016

Dave Drury: There was no provision for exceptions mentioned. We would need one in our department. Is that here?

Laura Mosier: Some ASL & ESL classes will be impacted. Our department has 4 classes beginning at 12:55pm. These are 5 unit classes.

Rick Goldsberry: EMS is also impacted.

Russell Lavery: I did get an email letting me know my classroom was not working, but š Z š } •v[š Z o%o ]v š Z •Z}Œ š š Œ u X

3. Online Education Initiative Gayla Finnell

Gayla Finnell: This pilot program would be a good opportunity to garner support and š Œ ]v]v P X t Á Œ i μ •š ^Z}u _ u%o μ •U μ š ]š š μ Œ v • }μ š Á ^š Z]v P _ }o o P U Á ]š Z ñor evaluation and up to 3 of them • o š X t [o o Æ %o o}Œ •š μ v š Œ ]v •• •••u v š %o Œ } P State will buy the software, etc., which helps IVC.

Ralph Marquez: How will prerequisites be handled?

' Ç o &]v v o o W d Z š š sed v[š v ]• μ

Michael Heumann: So our students will be taking DE from all classes available statewide for credit to be applied to local degree and certificates.

Nicholas Akinkuoye: Who is targeted for complaints? That has to be worked out.

Mike Palacio, Jr.: Will athletic credits apply?

Gayla Finnell: Maybe, but completion rates may improve.

Allyn Leon: The Texas Community College system

Michael Heumann: Online classes are the most popular, but a statewide pool would enable more specialized classes to have a shot.

4. AB 86 Adult Education Regional Planning Summit

Nicholas Akinkuoye: There are many questions that we hope to be addressed at this summit.

5. Other topics

Frank Rapp: I want to draw our attention to the historic significance of the now

Chair Gilison commenced the meeting at 2:35 p.m.
