these Administrative Procedures are specifically not intended to infringe in any way on the rights of student to engage in free expression as protected by the state and federal constitutions, and by Education Code Section 76120, and will not be used to punish expression that is protected.

Students and campus organizations must comply with the Standards of Student Conduct established by the board of Trustees of the Imperial Community College District in collaboration with the College faculty, administration and students. Violations of such rules are subject to the following appropriate of disciplinary action which shall be administered by appropriate College authorities in accordance with the Due Process Disciplinary Procedures. Penalties are listed in degree of severity, but not necessarily in chronological order of administration.

Warning- Notice to the student or organization that continuation or repetition of specified conduct may be cause for further disciplinary action.

Reprimand- Written reprimand for violation of specified rules. A student or organization receiving a reprimand is notified that continued conduct of the type described in the reprimand may result in formal disciplinary action.

Disciplinary Action- Expulsion from participation in privileges or extracurricular College activities set forth in the notice of disciplinary probation for a specified period of time. The imposition of disciplinary probation shall include notification in writing of the reason for disciplinary probation to the student and parent parent or guardian where the student is a minor, or to a designated officer where a student organization is involved.

Restitution, Reimbursement for damage or Misappropriation of Property- Reimbursement may take the form of appropriate service to repair or otherwise compensate for damage.

Suspension- A student may be suspended by the Governing Board, the Superintendent/President or his designee, or by an instructor for good cause as related to College activity or attendance. The Superintendent/President or his designee may suspend a student: (a) from one or more classes for up to 10 (ten) days of instruction; (b) from one or more classes for the remainder of the school term; or (c) from all College classes and activities for one or more terms.

Removal by Instructor- An instructor may remove a student for the day of removal and the next class meeting. Such action must be immediately reported to the superintendent/President. During the period of removal the student may not be returned without the consent of the instructor.

Expulsion- An expulsion is a longterm or permanent denial of all campus privileges, including class attendance. When applied to a campus organization, expulsion refers to denial of all charter privileges for a like period of time. Students and campus organizations may be suspended from all campus privileges, including class attendance, while appeals and hearings are in progress. The Governing Board may expel when: (a) other means of conviction fails to bring about proper conduct, or (b) presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others.

Conduct of Non-Students

Persons who are not students or employees of the College, while on College property, shall be required to adhere to the Standards of Conduct applicable to student and to abide by campus policies and regulations. Non-College persons shall address meetings on campus only pursuant to an invitation from the Governing Board, members of the teaching staff, administration , or chartered student organization (See Campus Speakers Policy).

All persons on College property shall be responsible for reasonable cause to identify themselves upon request by a College official and to state the purpose for which they have entered the campus.
